

SMARTER RESEARCH TRAINING

“I never have enough time for research”

“I always find way too much information”

“I can never find the authority I need”

Sound familiar? If so, Lincoln’s Inn Library has just the solution. We are introducing a series of short, practical training sessions to address key research issues.

TOP RESEARCH TIPS

Tuesday 24 October and
Wednesday 25 October 5.45 pm
(Session lasts 1-1.5 Hours)

- Avoid everyone else’s mistakes
- Sources people forget
- Getting the best from the web
- Top tricks for databases
- Future-proofing your research

LEGISLATION AND OFFICIAL PUBLICATIONS

Wednesday 8 November
5.45pm (Session lasts 1-1.5
Hours)

- Current and historic legislation
- When legislation goes local
- Ways to find what you need
- Strange but important legislation
- Official publications: the whys and wherefores

Each course is worth 1 CPD hour.

The course is free but please book in advance by contacting the Library at library@lincolnsinn.org.uk or 020 7242 4371. If you cannot make these dates or have any queries concerning training, please contact the library.

Lincoln’s Inn
Library